

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1848.

"Talk not of seventy years as age; in seven I have seen more changes, down from monarchs to the humblest individual under heaven. Than might suffice a moderate century through." BYRON.

Dear Friends: I acknowledge, with pleasure, the receipt of your valuable paper. As a token of your kind regard, and as the only intelligence which I have received from your town for some months past, it gratified me very much. I was no less pleased with the evidence it offered of your own prosperity, as its columns exhibited an increase of business; and the tone of your article on "the past, the present and the future," not only showed you enjoyed a comfortable and contented existence, but that you had a proper appreciation of your position.

Your paper, too, continues to speak loudly for you as careful practical printers, in its neat and tasty appearance. Indeed, it is a matter of some surprise, how you manage, with materials that have been used some years, to throw into the shade many of the papers printed on new type. The secret is shown, however, in the fact which I have mentioned, that you are good practical printers, who do your own work! And it shows another thing: why you have succeeded, when many others have failed! You are now enjoying, in a pleasant town, and in a healthy and plentiful country, an independent and comparatively easy position, while many others, of less ability, are adventurers on the broad ocean of life, at the mercy of its storms or dead calms. May you continue to reap the rewards of your industry, and feel the advantages of your fixed position.

You know what a wandering life I have lived of late years; and, perhaps, were not surprised to find me here. Mine is a singular destiny.—Time was when I thought myself as permanently fixed in your town as its most steady citizen—the venerable GEORGE SAFFARANS, for instance—but, meeting with reverses, that broke up, not only my business, but all the ideal notions I had cherished of going through the world independent, and owing no man any thing, save good will. With a deep sense of the position which I had lost (for the time being) in a community where I had lived since my boyhood, I resolved to make a powerful effort to regain it and pay off all that I owed; and, by shifting from point to point, I have nearly succeeded, but at the same time, I have gained a character for instability which, I fear may be too lasting.

Excuse this egotism, and let me end it by informing you that I have not been unsuccessful in my last move—a pleasant berth with an appendage of "a thousand a year," has been the result. I now "breathe freer" than I have done before for years, and spend my leisure in agreeable observation of, or in remarks on, things in Washington: some of which you may have seen in the Missouri and Kentucky papers, over the signature of "Don Quix," a cognomen which seems to suit me. If agreeable to you, I shall occasionally furnish you with a sketch. [Do]

Since my arrival here, I have become more intimately acquainted with the Hon. Willard P. Hall, the talented young member from the Platte District, whose character and disposition have been more fully developed by his recent adventure as a private under Gen. Kearny to California. The romance of such an adventure by a talented young lawyer and successful politician is particularly interesting, but the useful information which he has thus been able to collect, will be of greater interest in his future career as a member of Congress. I predict for him much fame and usefulness.

Remember me to my many friends in your town and county, and believe me, Truly yours, Q.

Messrs. Benson & Green, Fayette.

SORE THROAT, Coughs, Consumption, Pains in various parts of the body, and other unpleasant symptoms, are the usual effects of catching cold.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a delightful medicine for carrying off a cold, because they purge from the body all morbid and corrupt humors in so easy and natural a manner, that the body is relieved of every kind of suffering as if by magic. From three to six of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will, in a short time, make a perfect cure of the most obstinate cold—at the same time the blood and other fluids will be thoroughly purified, and the constitution so completely invigorated, that the body will be restored to even sounder health than before.

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills, OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH, THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE PREPARATION. Every day is this celebrated medicine extending the sphere of its usefulness, and every year adding to the long catalogue of its triumphs.

A MILLION OF BOXES are distributed annually without fully meeting the demand. For some time past, the sales have been limited solely by want of facilities of supply! Truly this is a universal remedy! Unhindered, these Pills have found their way into the remotest corners of the Union, every where proving their title to fame.

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND AND SICK MAN'S HOPE—THE MARVEL AND BLESSING OF THE AGE. For a trifling sum, every individual and every family may have

HEALTH INSURED to them for an indefinite period, and what is life without health but a miserable existence! It is too precarious a boon to be tampered with, by trying all sorts of experiments upon it. The sick should use those medicines which only experience has shown to be the best.

READ! MARK! LEARN! AND INWARDLY DIGEST the following most remarkable statement from one of the most respectable citizens of Northumberland county, Pennsylvania:

PETERSVILLE, Pa., May 4, 1847. Dr. WRIGHT—I have often wished to inform you of the benefits derived from the use of your Indian Vegetable Pills, for the purpose of gratifying you, who are a stranger to me, but with the hope that other fellow beings, who might be similarly afflicted, may be induced to fly to the same resort.

In the fall of 1841, I was persuaded to use your Pills; before I had used one box I felt encouraged to continue, and did continue, until I had used 12 boxes, having stopped at intervals and commenced again. The result was, that in the Spring following, I left the sick bed and room to which I had been entirely confined for eight years; during which long period I had recourse to the skill of the best physicians that could be obtained, and who did all in their power; but all their efforts were in vain. Indeed, I never derived the least benefit.

My complaint was originally rheumatic, which was afterwards aggravated by a cold. The two combined became seated in my whole system. I became helpless—my legs and arms were of no use to me during that long time, in which I suffered beyond my power to describe; and if I were to attempt description, it might appear to others an exaggeration. Nor will I attempt to tell you how much money I paid the doctors.

I may mention that in those four years I did not take more food than a healthy man would use in four months. The eating of victuals had much the effect the swallowing of a coal might have.

I will not be too lengthy, but conclude by saying that old age is the only hindrance to performing labor. My appetite has been ever since unimpairedly good, and I enjoy the night restfully.

I live in Moore township, Northampton county, Pennsylvania; am a farmer, am 74 years of age; and though you are unknown to me, I conceive you the greatest benefactor the earth ever afforded me. (Signed) JOHN FRACK.

SOMETHING NEW.—McNELL & Co., taking counsel from the times, are ever intent on making their business progressive, and on improving and beautifying their hats. They have this fall introduced a style of trimming at once rich, novel, and of the most palpable utility. It consists of a pocket in the corner of the hat, to hold cigars, gloves, loose papers, or any light articles usual to carry in the hat, and that without touching the head. This pocket is closed with an elastic cord, and makes a rich and attractive finish to the hat. Being something new, and so far superior to McNELL & Co., the public are invited to call and examine it.
